

I am opposed to having the NO CALL LIST removed. Phone solicitation is a violation of my privacy. If a company or organization can't find a more creative and effective way to sell their product or cause then they should not be in business. Allowing them to disturb the precious little peace and quiet I have should not be an option